1. [redacted] the 25X1 final draft of the European Peasant Party Movement Declaration [redacted] 25X1 Text of Declaration of the European Peasant Party Movement, 7 March 1947)
25X1 has been approved by all the Yugoslav, Hungarian, Polish, and Bulgarian 25X1 Peasant Party representatives. At the same time these representatives fully agreed that the declaration should be signed by all the Peasant Party leaders in time for presentation to the Moscow Conference. The Rumanians, however, informed the Peasant Party group that they were not prepared to sign the declaration at the present time and wished to wait until the Moscow Conference adjourned before assuming a definite position.
Machek, on the other hand, may disregard the Rumanians and publish the declaration during the Moscow Conference. If the declaration is published, it will also lack the signature of Ferenc Nagy, leader of the Hungarian Smallholders Party, in view of his present position as Prime Minister of the Hungarian Government.
